What's the news: Grid Dynamics has been recognized as Google Cloud Expertise Partner of the Month for November 2021.

Why it matters: It differentiates Grid Dynamics to Google Cloud customers and validates our expertise to deliver successful solutions powered by Google Cloud.

Who's it for: Digital natives and growth-oriented enterprises looking to leverage Google Cloud technologies.

SAN RAMON, Calif. --(BUSINESS WIRE)-- Grid Dynamics Holdings, Inc. (NASDAQ:GDYN) (Grid Dynamics), a leader in enterprise-level digital transformation services and solutions, has announced it has been recognized as the Google Cloud Expertise Partner of the Month for November 2021. Customers of Google Cloud can best serve their end customers by working with a Google Cloud Partner with proven, advanced expertise in Google Cloud and cloud-native technologies.

The Expertise Partner of the Month recognition is given to the Google Cloud partner achieving the highest number of expertise designations during a given month or overall. Grid Dynamics holds nearly a dozen expertise designations for Google Cloud across application development, cloud migration, infrastructure and data analytics specialization.

“We are incredibly proud of our expertise being recognized by Google Cloud,” said Rahul Bindlish, Vice President, Strategic Business Development at Grid Dynamics. “Investing in our team is an investment in our business and ultimately in our clients’ success. And this distinction affirms our commitment to helping our clients with customer experience, business optimization and accelerated growth.”

Grid Dynamics’ team of experts provides access to cloud-first solutions powered by Google Cloud – including customer experience, application modernization, data analytics, machine learning, business intelligence tools, and more. Explore the full range of offerings on our website.
