1 PREAMBLE

1.1 NAME, LEGAL STATUS AND SEAT

The INTERNATIONAL FEDERATION OF TEQBALL (Hungarian name: NEMZETKÖZI TEQBALL SZÖVETSÉG, French name: FÉDÉRATION INTERNATIONALE DE TEQBALL) ("FITEQ") is the sole and exclusive world governing body for Teqball and para Teqball and its virtual sport versions. FITEQ is an international public benefit (non-profit) sports association.

The official seat of FITEQ is in Budapest, Hungary in accordance with Act CLXXXI of 2011. The registered seat of FITEQ is located at H-1101 Budapest, Expo tér 5-7.

1.2 OFFICIAL LANGUAGES

The official language of FITEQ is English and Hungarian (the latter for corporate purposes due to the law of incorporation). Other language versions of official documents may be published by the General Secretary. In case of discrepancies, English shall prevail.

1.3 APPLICABLE LAW

FITEQ shall be governed by the laws of Hungary. Any matters not regulated by the Statutes shall be governed by Act V of 2013 on the Civil Code, Act I of 2004 on Sports and Act CLXXV of 2011 on the Freedom of Association, Non-profit Status and the Operation and Support of Civil Organizations.

1.4 OBJECTIVES

FITEQ is established to:

- (a) promote the sport of Teqball and para Teqball (hereinafter "Teqball") in all its variants, including virtual sport variants, serve as the worldwide governing body thereof, and codify its rules;
- (b) promote the following values:
 - (I) integrity, passion, inclusion, and ambition;
 - (II) health and sports education;
 - (III) sportsmanship and fair play;
 - (IV) support of anti-doping measures including via compliance with the WADA Code;
 - (V) support of best practice, integrity and sport development;
 - (VI) equality, irrespective of race, color, gender, sexual orientation, ethnicity, language, religion, politics, family situation, ability or disability;
 - (VII) good governance, transparency and democracy;
 - (VIII) the ideals of the Olympic movement;
 - (IX) social, economic, and personal development through sport;
 - (X) peace through common sports interests, activities and cooperation;
- (c) carry out the functions set forth in the Sports Act as follows:
 - (I) be responsible for international relations, including with the IOC and the Global Association of International Sports Federations (GAISF),

- (II) support the participation of athletes at international sporting events, provide services to their members and athletes, including dispute resolution and education,
- (III) own the rights to the competitions that they organise, in particular the rights to announce, organise and arrange international sports competitions, to broadcast, record and commercially exploit them via television, radio or any other electronic-digital technology, and to commercially exploit advertising and marketing rights to such competitions.

2 MEMBERSHIP, AFFILIATED PERSONS AND ENTITIES

FITEQ's Members are National Federations. Only Members (National Federations) shall have voting rights and membership right as set forth in these Statutes.

Individuals may be affiliated to FITEQ and enjoy certain limited rights, as set forth herein (Athletes, Coaches, Para Classifiers, Commission members, Technical Officials, Managers, and Supporters hereinafter jointly: Affiliated Persons). Save for the election of the Athletes' representative at the Executive Board, Affiliated Persons shall not have voting rights and shall not be entitled to rights that are reserved for Members.

Affiliated entities are confederations or other entities with whom FITEQ concluded an affiliation agreement.

2.1 NATIONAL FEDERATIONS

National Federations (hereinafter "Member") are the single national sports associations recognised by FITEQ as (I) the sole and exclusive domestic governing body of Teqball and para Teqball in a country and as (II) the official representative in that country of Teqball and para Teqball, and its own affiliates.

2.1.1 Eligibility

Only one sports association per country, as determined by the applicable rules of the United Nations and/or the International Olympic Committee, is eligible to become a member of FITEQ, if it fulfils the following criteria:

- (a) acceptance of National Federation's Statutes complying with the FITEQ Statutes, the National Federation's domestic laws and the regulations of the National Olympic Committee, and;
- (b) status of duly registered legal entity, and its acceptance by relevant National Governmental body in accordance with the domestic laws, and;
- (c) recognition by National Governmental body and/or the National Olympic Committee in accordance with the domestic laws and the regulations of the National Olympic Committee, or evidence of efforts (if accepted by FITEQ) to realistically achieve such recognition within due time.

2.1.2 Membership Application, Preliminary Member and full Member

2.1.2.1 A national sports association eligible to become a Member must submit a Membership Application signed by its legal representative(s) to FITEQ. The national sports association must also submit the following documents in its application:

- (a) A copy of its Statutes reflecting the objective and values of FITEQ, including at least the:
 - (I) acknowledgement of FITEQ as the only recognized world governing body of Teqball and para Teqball;
 - (II) adherence to the FITEQ Statutes, regulations and Bylaws (hereinafter "FITEQ Rules");
 - (III) acceptance of the jurisdiction and decisions of the Court of Arbitration for Sport (CAS).
 - (b) The list of members of its executive board or senior executives;
 - (c) Evidence of the eligibility criteria set out in Article 2.1.1.
 - (d) Proof of payment of the Membership Fee.
- If the documents are in order and eligibility criteria are fulfilled, the Executive Board shall decide to confer the status of Member.

2.1.2.2 In case a member candidate meets the eligibility criteria (2.1.1), the Executive Board may grant to such candidate a Preliminary Member status.

The Preliminary Member will gain full Member status, if, within twelve (12) months from obtaining the Preliminary Member status, the Executive Board has acknowledged the proper and legally sound operations and governance of such National Federation in line with these Statutes. If the preliminary membership period ends without any acknowledgement by the Executive Board, such Preliminary Member will lose its status automatically, without any further action.

Preliminary Member is entitled to the same rights and obligations during the preliminary membership period as a full Member, except for matters designated by the Executive Board in a Bylaw.

2.1.3 Membership Maintenance Procedure

Once granted, the Membership status is maintained by continued execution of all relevant obligations defined in these Statutes.

2.1.4 Exit Procedure

- (a) FITEQ membership ends:
 - (I) If the Member no longer exists (termination / cessation without a legal successor);
 - (II) If the Member withdraws its membership; or
 - (III) if the Member is expelled by the Executive Board as per this Article.

The Member or its (previous) representative shall duly inform the Executive Board both of the threatened cessation / termination and the fact of the cessation.

Any Member who wants to withdraw their membership shall give written notice thereof to the Executive Board. The termination of membership shall be effective from 60 days after the written notice. No refund of fees will be made.

In case the membership ends, assets of the Member received from FITEQ for sport development purposes shall be either returned to FITEQ or used for Teqball sport related purposes as instructed by FITEQ.

- (b) If any Member, by reason of conduct or omission, (I) no longer fulfils the Membership criteria, and/or (II) is in breach of the FITEQ Rules, and/or (III) brings the sport of Teqball and/or para Teqball or its variants into disrepute, and/or (iv) suffers any other serious organizational, operational shortcomings or deficiencies that prevents or hinders the operation of the Member, the Executive Board may perform an investigation.

The Executive Board, in its discretion, may take such action as it deems fit to protect the reputation, the integrity of the sport and the due operation of FITEQ and the Members. Without limiting the discretion of the Executive Board to take such action, the Executive Board may:

- (I) Suspend all or some of the officials of that Member from participating in any FITEQ activities for a period of up to two (2) years;
 - (II) Remove the officials of the Member from office and appoint a normalization committee to restore the lawful and compliant operation of the Member;
 - (III) Suspend the Member for a period of up to two (2) years, with the scope and the contents of the suspension to be specified by the Executive Board case by case; or
 - (IV) Expulse the Member in accordance with Article 2.1.4 (c) with or without previous suspension (depending on the severity of the underlying breach).
- (c) If, based on the finding of the investigations initiated by the Executive Board, it has been established that the Member has breached the domestic laws and/ or National Olympic Committee's rules and regulations and/or FITEQ Rules, and such breach was considered to be serious and not remediable, the Executive Board is entitled to decide on the expulsion of such Member. Such decision shall also be final and there shall be no appeal within FITEQ.
 - (d) The detailed procedural rules of the mechanism set out in Article 2.1.4 (b) and the exit procedure shall be laid down in a Bylaw.

2.2 MEMBER RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS

2.2.1 Rights

All Members are entitled:

- (a) to use the services of FITEQ;
- (b) to take part in FITEQ competitions when they are eligible in accordance with the applicable Rules;
- (c) to be recognised as the only Teqball governing body of its country by everybody, including its National Government Authority, National Sport Authority, and National Olympic Committee.
- (d) to take part in the FITEQ General Assembly as set out in these Statutes;
- (e) to exercise all rights of Members set forth herein and to receive the benefits of membership as set out in the FITEQ Rules;
- (f) to make proposals to change FITEQ Rules and to make nominations for the Executive Board and Commissions.
- (g) to be informed of FITEQ's activities as communicated by FITEQ.

2.2.2 Obligations

All Members are obliged:

- (a) to support FITEQ in its efforts to achieve its objectives;
- (b) to comply with the FITEQ Rules and other regulations at all times;
- (c) to ensure that their own statutes and rules comply at all times with FITEQ Rules, and to amend them as may be necessary for this purpose and to submit to the Executive Board a copy of their statutes whenever their statutes are amended or replaced;
- (d) to insert in their statutes a provision to the effect that in case of inconsistency between the Member's statutes and/or rules and FITEQ Rules, the latter shall prevail;
- (e) to comply with and implement decisions and directives of FITEQ, notably of the General Assembly, the Executive Board, Directors, Commissions and CAS decisions at all times;
- (f) to ensure that their own members and officials comply with and implement the FITEQ Rules, as well as directives and decisions of FITEQ and CAS;
- (g) to include within its statutes a provision, which allows in and out-of-competition doping control by FITEQ or a FITEQ delegated third party;
- (h) to hold a general assembly once per year and elections at least every four (4) years. Members are obliged to send a summary report of the outcome of the general assembly and elections to FITEQ;
- (i) to manage its affairs independently;
- (j) to participate in the FITEQ calendar events with athletes;
- (k) to pay the annual membership fee;
- (l) develop Teqball and para Teqball in their country. Host a national championships annually and participate in the national event series;
- (m) send an Annual Activity Report;
- (n) remain in good standing;
- (o) respond to any FITEQ requests, including circulars and questionnaires within the deadline set therein;
- (p) to abstain from any conduct which is, or may reasonably be deemed to be, detrimental to FITEQ or the interests of FITEQ.

2.3 AFFILIATES

INDIVIDUAL AFFILIATES

- (a) Natural persons may be affiliated to FITEQ as Individual Affiliates if they meet the eligibility criteria as described in Articles 2.3.1 and 2.3.2. Rules on Commission members are described in Article 4.
- (b) Eligible Individual Affiliates shall always adhere to the FITEQ Rules and shall be subject to the jurisdiction of FITEQ as described hereinafter.

2.3.1 Athletes

Individuals wishing to participate in FITEQ competitions shall fulfil the following criteria;

- (a) Meet the requirements as described in the FITEQ Policy for Age Categories and Minimum Age Requirements;

- (c) Have not been prosecuted by any governmental authority for infractions relating to sports, including violations of integrity and anti-doping;
- (d) Submit copy of the personal data page of an official form of photo identification in the country of their nationality;
- (e) Proof of payment of the affiliation fee;
- (f) Registration on the FITEQ platform;
- (g) Be sufficiently fit to participate in the competitions.

Athletes shall be liable under the FITEQ Rules subject to the relevant rules but at least for one (1) year after the payment of their last competition fee.

Further rules regarding eligibility may be specified in a separate Bylaw.

2.3.2 Coaches, Para Classifiers, Technical Officials, Managers, and Supporters

- (a) Are not under any sanctions relating to Teqball and/or the WADA Code;
- (b) Have not been prosecuted by any governmental authority for infractions relating to sports, including violations of integrity and anti-doping;
- (c) Submit copy of the personal data page of an official form of photo identification in the country of their nationality;
- (d) Proof of payment of any relevant fees;
- (e) Registration on the FITEQ platform.

Coaches, Technical Officials, Managers, and Supporters shall be liable under the FITEQ Rules subject to the relevant rules.

AFFILIATED ENTITIES

2.3.3 Establishment of confederations

National Federations that belong to the same continent may establish confederations. Confederations whose membership includes at least 75% of the National Federations of the relevant continent at the time of applying for recognition by FITEQ may be affiliated therewith. Further, confederations meeting the affiliation criteria set forth in the Statutes and in the relevant Bylaws of the Executive Board may become affiliated entities with FITEQ once they are recognized and accepted as one by the Executive Board. In case Executive Board deems appropriate it can forward such question to the General Assembly.

FITEQ provides two-step affiliation to a continental confederation candidate. The preliminary affiliation is granted to a continental confederation provided:

- The continental confederation fulfils the criterium of the minimum number of member national federations states in By-law.
- The continental confederation has received the approval from FITEQ for its Statutes.
- The continental confederation has held its first electoral general assembly where the relevant continental confederation leadership has been elected by the member National Federations and the Minutes of such general assembly has been sent to FITEQ.

- The continental confederation has received the approval for their name and logo.

The full affiliation is granted to a continental confederation provided:

- FITEQ has acknowledged the proper and legally sound operations and governance of the confederation in the initial up to 12 months in line with the Statutes of the continental confederation and the Statutes of FITEQ.

2.3.4 Rights and obligations of confederations

(a) Each confederation shall have the following rights:

- (I) exercise any other rights conferred by FITEQ (including but not limited to organizing international competitions) in accordance with separate partnership agreements concluded with FITEQ;
- (II) to participate in any confederation-development program or similar initiative to provide support or funding by FITEQ, as determined by the Executive Board from time to time;
- (III) to develop the sport through its initiatives in its region;
- (IV) to make nominations for the Commissions;
- (V) to participate, through one representative, as observer in the General Assembly;
- (VI) to have the right to be informed of relevant FITEQ's activities as communicated by FITEQ;

Each confederation shall have the following obligations:

- (VII) to comply and duly enforce compliance with the Statutes, Rules and decisions of FITEQ and its bodies;
 - (VIII) to work closely with FITEQ in every domain so as to achieve the objectives stipulated in the Preamble in its own region;
 - (IX) to actively and constructively maintain relations and cooperation with FITEQ for the development of the sport and the local sport community and to work towards recognition by the National Olympic Committee;
 - (X) to set up or appoint one or more internal bodies that work closely together with the corresponding bodies at FITEQ;
 - (XI) to ensure that the representatives appointed or elected to the FITEQ bodies carry out their activities in these bodies with mutual respect, solidarity, recognition and fair play, and in accordance with these Statutes and any related FITEQ Rules;
 - (XII) arrange local development programs, courses, conferences, etc.;
 - (XIII) to procure the funds and sponsors necessary to fulfil its duties;
 - (XIV) to create and submit to FITEQ their statutes and regulations, as revised from time to time, in line with FITEQ Statutes and FITEQ Rules;
 - (XV) to pay annual affiliation fee as determined by the Executive Board.
- (b) The Executive Board may delegate other duties or powers to one or more (or all) confederations by agreement with such confederation(s).
- (c) The presidents of confederations shall automatically become members of the Sport Development Commission.

2.3.5 Regarding the exit process of confederations, Article 2.1.4. shall duly apply.

2.3.6 Establishment of sub-regional or cross-regional associations

National Federations may establish sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederations.

Sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederations meeting the affiliation criteria set forth in these Statutes and in the relevant Bylaws of the Executive Board may become affiliated entities of FITEQ once they are recognised and accepted by the Executive Board and, where applicable, by the relevant Continental Teqball Confederation. Where the Executive Board deems appropriate, it may submit such matter to the General Assembly for decision.

Sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederations whose membership includes at least seventy five per cent (75%) of the National Federations of the relevant sub-regional or cross-regional territory at the time of application may apply for recognition by FITEQ.

FITEQ shall apply a two-step recognition procedure to sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederation candidates.

Preliminary affiliation may be granted provided that the sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederation:

- (a) fulfils the minimum membership criteria set out in the relevant Bylaws of the Executive Board;
- (b) has adopted Statutes approved by FITEQ;
- (c) has held its first electoral General Assembly, during which its Executive Board and other governing bodies were duly elected by the member National Federations, and has submitted the minutes thereof to FITEQ;
- (d) is duly and legally registered in accordance with the applicable national laws and these Statutes; and
- (e) has obtained approval from FITEQ for its name and logo.

Full affiliation may be granted following an initial period of up to twelve (12) months, provided that FITEQ has acknowledged the proper, lawful and effective operation and governance of the sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederation in line with its Statutes, these Statutes and the Rules and decisions of FITEQ.

Sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederations shall be recognised by FITEQ and, where applicable, by the relevant Continental Teqball Confederation. Notwithstanding the foregoing, FITEQ retains the exclusive authority to grant recognition independently, irrespective of the recognition status or decision of any continental governing body.

2.3.7 Rights and obligations of sub-regional or cross-regional associations

Sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederations shall be autonomous within their areas of competence, with a role to support and coordinate, but shall at all times comply with the Statutes, regulations and decisions of the International Federation.

Sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederations shall not have independent international regulatory authority, shall not have disciplinary authority over National Federations, and shall not have international eligibility rights, except where expressly delegated by FITEQ.

(a) Rights

Each sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederation shall have the following rights:

- (I) to exercise any rights expressly conferred by FITEQ (including but not limited to organizing international competitions) in accordance with separate partnership agreements concluded with FITEQ;
- (II) to participate in any sub-regional or cross-regional program or similar initiative to provide support or funding by FITEQ, as determined by the Executive Board from time to time;
- (III) to develop the sport through its initiatives in its region;
- (IV) to make nominations for the Commissions;
- (V) to participate, through one representative, as observer in the General Assembly;
- (VI) to have the right to be informed of relevant FITEQ activities as communicated by FITEQ.

(b) Obligations

Each sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederation shall be obliged:

- (VII) to comply and duly enforce compliance with the Statutes, Rules and decisions of FITEQ and its bodies;
- (VIII) to work closely with FITEQ in every domain so as to achieve the objectives stipulated in the Preamble in its own sub-regional or cross-regional territory;
- (IX) to actively and constructively maintain relations and cooperation with FITEQ for the development of the sport and the local sport community;
- (X) to establish or appoint internal bodies cooperating with the corresponding bodies of FITEQ;
- (XI) to ensure that the representatives appointed or elected to the FITEQ bodies carry out their activities in accordance with these Statutes, the Rules of FITEQ and the principles of mutual respect, solidarity and fair play;
- (XII) to arrange local development programs, courses and conferences;
- (XIII) to procure the funds and sponsors necessary to fulfil its duties;
- (XIV) to create and submit to FITEQ its Statutes and regulations, as revised from time to time, in line with FITEQ Statutes and FITEQ Rules;
- (XV) to pay the annual affiliation fee as determined by the Executive Board.

(c) Delegation

The Executive Board may, by agreement, delegate specific duties or limited powers to one or more sub-regional or cross-regional Teqball Confederations.

2.3.8 Regarding the termination of FITEQ recognition granted to sub-regional or cross-continental Teqball associations, Article 2.1.4 shall duly apply.

2.4 FEES

2.4.1 Payment of Fees

Members and Individual Affiliates are liable for the payment of fees directly to FITEQ. The amount of the fees shall be determined by the Executive Board.

2.4.2 Non-payment and debts

Default in payment of the membership fees or other amounts which may be due by Members to FITEQ, later than the 31st of January of the following calendar year, may lead to sanctions, including suspension or, ultimately expulsion of membership as follows. If the respective Member is in delay with any payment obligation, the Executive Board may i) suspend the Member or ii) initiate the termination of the membership of the Member by the General Assembly if the Member fails to pay the respective amount within 30 days from the Executive Board's decision on suspension.

3 GOVERNANCE

FITEQ's supreme body is the General Assembly. FITEQ is governed by the Executive Board, in accordance with the FITEQ Rules.

Except for the President, Chairman, Vice-President, and General Secretary of FITEQ, should any person possess more than one position in different bodies of FITEQ (e.g. board member, affiliated entity official, Commission member), a possible conflict of interest must be evaluated on a case-by-case basis. In case a perceived or actual conflict of interest is established by the relevant Commission or the Executive Board, the affected member cannot vote on the matter in question. No member of the Commission or Executive Board may vote on an item concerning them or in which they have a vested interest (personal or otherwise), which must be declared before the meeting.

3.1 THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY

3.1.1 Powers

The General Assembly as the supreme body of FITEQ shall have the power to decide on the matters specifically delegated to it by these Statutes and on all items submitted to its vote.

The General Assembly shall have the power to:

- (a) ratify policies of FITEQ as laid down in Article 3.3.;
- (b) approve the Minutes of the preceding General Assembly;
- (c) approve the reports of the President / General Secretary which shall be valid as the Executive Board Report;
- (d) approve the Annual Report;
- (e) approve the independently audited accounts of the previous accounting period;
- (f) elect the Executive Board Members, except i) Founders who shall be appointed for indefinite period, and the ii) General Secretary who shall be appointed by the Executive Board for indefinite period;
- (g) terminate the position of an Additional Executive Board Member suspended by the Executive Board;
- (h) decide upon the expulsion of an Additional Executive Board Member by a motion of censure adopted by at least two-thirds of all Members in attendance at the General Assembly;
- (i) decide on the approval and/or amendment of the FITEQ Statutes;
- (j) by accepting the Annual Report and the Executive Board Report, discharge the Executive Board from their financial obligations;

- (k) establish awards, confer titles and award honorary positions in FITEQ's bodies with consultative rights;
- (l) elect and remove from office FITEQ's financial auditor;
- (m) decide on FITEQ's accession to international organizations;
- (n) decide on the dissolution of FITEQ.

3.1.2 Meetings

The General Assembly shall take place at least once per year (Ordinary General Assembly). The Ordinary General Assembly and the Extraordinary General Assembly may be convened as set forth in Article 3.1.2.1 hereunder. The Extraordinary General Assembly may be convened in accordance with the provisions of Article 3.1.3.1.

3.1.2.1 Convening the General Assembly

The General Assembly shall be convened ninety (90) calendar days before a given date by either

- (a) the President and/or General Secretary at their own initiative; or
- (b) the General Secretary in case of a written request of 70% or more of Members submitted to the General Secretary.

The notice shall contain at least the date (including the alternative date if the General Assembly has no quorum) of the General Assembly. The venue (including an alternative venue if deemed necessary by the Executive Board) of the General Assembly shall be announced at latest forty five (45) days before the General Assembly.

3.1.2.2 Agenda

- (a) At least eighty (80) calendar days prior to the date of the General Assembly, the General Secretary shall invite the Members to suggest matters for inclusion in the agenda. Only proposals received from Members within 60 (sixty) calendar days before the date of the General Assembly will be considered.
- (b) The Agenda of the General Assembly shall consist of items that are submitted by the Executive Board and compiled by the General Secretary.
- (c) The following items must be on the agenda of an ordinary General Assembly:
 - (I) Approval of the annual reports (including the decisions of the Executive Board) on the activities of the:
 - (1) President/General Secretary
 - (2) Commissions
 - (II) Approval of the Audited Annual Financial Report
- (d) The following items may be on the agenda:
 - (I) Awards, honours and distinctions
 - (II) Presentations by sponsors and appointed individuals
 - (III) Modification of the Statutes
 - (IV) Other questions of importance concerning the sport of Teqball and para Teqball.

3.1.2.3 Invitations to Attend

At least 30 (thirty) calendar days before the date of the General Assembly, the General Secretary will invite each Member and each member of the Executive Board, to attend. The invitation shall include the Agenda defined in the previous clause.

3.1.2.4 Attendees

- (a) Each Member may be represented at the General Assembly by a maximum of 3 (three) delegates who shall be chosen amongst the Member's officials notified to FITEQ in writing by its president or general secretary. Each delegate must present a proof of appointment by the respective Member. The Member shall appoint one (1) delegate that is entitled to exercise its voting rights. One person may not act as an official on behalf of two separate Members. As such, delegates may only represent the Member that appointed them.
- (b) Only Members that have paid the Membership Fees for the current year and have no arrears may participate and vote at the General Assembly. Subject to the payment of Fees, suspended Members may participate at the General Assembly but shall have no voting rights.

3.1.2.5 Session

The General Assembly shall be chaired by the President or, these duties are taken over by another member of the Executive Board.

3.1.2.6 Venue

The General Assembly shall be conducted either in person and/or by electronic means.

In case of General Assembly held by electronic means of communication, the Members and other attendees are not required to attend the General Assembly in person directly, they may exercise their members' rights by using electronic means of telecommunication as well. In this case, the General Secretary or the person convening the meeting shall establish secure telephone or internet connection with the Members and other attendees absent, and the Members may initiate proposals, make comments and cast their votes concerning the given agenda item via the electronic means of communication.
