

Manufacturers' Certification Statement

Pertaining to the
Inflation Reduction Act (IRA), 2022

This Certification Statement¹ provides verification that certain Infinity® brand exterior windows, doors, and skylights meet the eligibility performance criteria for tax credits allowed by Section 25C of the Internal Revenue Code, as extended by the Inflation Reduction Act of 2022. The latest legislation extended the credits from January 1, 2023, through December 31, 2032.

Manufacturer:

Infinity
401 State Ave N
PO Box 100
Warroad, MN 56763

For a list of eligible products, see energystar.gov. Qualified building envelope components include new:

- Exterior doors that meet applicable ENERGY STAR requirements. ENERGY STAR Version 6.0 prior to October 23, 2023, and ENERGY STAR Version 7.0 on or after October 23, 2023. Credit is limited to $250 per door and $500 total.
- Exterior windows and skylights that meet ENERGY STAR Most Efficient certification requirements. Credit is limited to $600 total.

To qualify for the energy efficient home improvement tax credit, homeowners must purchase and install in their primary residence qualifying ENERGY STAR® windows, doors or skylights³. To demonstrate eligibility for the credit, save your receipts, a copy of this document, NFRC certification documentation, and comply with all applicable IRS requirements. NFRC certification documents include one of the following: a temporary NFRC label, a PDF of the temporary NFRC label, a reprinted sample label, or a Sales Order Energy Information Summary showing certified U-Factor and SHGC ratings of the product(s) for the zone the product is installed in to be claimed for credit. Consult IRS rules and a qualified tax advisor for additional forms and a complete description of tax credit requirements.

Infinity® expressly disclaims any responsibility or liability regarding the homeowner's ability to obtain tax credits. Always consult your tax qualified advisor.
