Spoonful of Comfort is not your standard online shop. Yes, you can order something on the spot (at 15% off!) on our website. But your personal account manager will help you do so much more!

When you open a free corporate account, you'll enjoy concierge-style account service to:

Corporate accounts get 15% off orders. You can also earn loyalty points to use towards free packages. Plus, you'll receive helpful (not sales-y) tips about the art of gifting in business.

“Anne helped me place an order for our employees to receive a corporate gift during the Covid-19 stay at home order. Anne was a pleasure to work with and made the ordering process so easy. I will definitely recommend Spoonful of Comfort to anyone in need of sending a special gift.” —Shelley M.

“I've got to hand it to you, I greatly appreciate your thoughtful, meaningful, and helpful blog posts and that you don't frequently flood my inbox with them either. I happened to be the recipient of a box in the midst of a major move. It was such a welcome change to have a warm, comforting and healthy meal during all the chaos. Thank you for your diligence and efforts in providing such quality offerings and in such a creative and purposeful manner.”
