IV. YOUR RIGHTS

You have the following rights in relation to your personal data:

1) Right to be informed

You have the right to be informed about the collection and use of your personal data in a clear and transparent way. Please consult the table above in clause III Data Controllers & Data Processors, or, in case of questions, contact our Data Protection Officer (contact details in clause VI ACCOUNTABILITY).

2) Right to access

You have the right to request access to your personal data and obtain information regarding the purpose of processing, what categories of personal data are processed, data processors, length of processing, your rights relating to our processing, your right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority regarding our processing, information on third party sources of your personal data communicated to us, and the existence of automated decision-making and related information, including the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for you, whether your personal data is transferred outside the EEA, and the conditions of these transfers.

3) Right to rectification

You have the right to obtain rectification of inaccurate personal data and, taking into account the purposes of the processing, to have incomplete personal data completed.

4) Right to erasure

You have the right to request erasure of your personal data without delay if:

- your personal data are no longer necessary for the purpose for which they were collected or otherwise processed;
- you withdraw your consent and there is no other legal basis for processing;
- you object to the processing pursuant to paragraph 6) below and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing;
- your personal data has been processed unlawfully;
- your personal data has to be erased for compliance with a legal obligation.

Please note that the abovementioned right to erasure does not apply to the extent that processing is necessary:

- for exercising the right of freedom of expression and information;
- for compliance with a legal obligation or for the performance of a task carried out in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in the Data Controller
- for reasons of public interest in the area of public health
- for achieving purposes in the public interest, scientific or historical research purposes or statistical purposes in so far as the right to erasure is likely to render impossible or seriously impair the achievement of the objectives of that processing; or
- for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims.

5) Right to restrict processing

You have the right to restrict processing of your personal data if:

- you have contested the accuracy of your personal data, for a period enabling us to verify the accuracy of your personal data;
- the processing is unlawful and you oppose the erasure of your personal data and request the restriction of its use instead;
- we no longer need the personal data for the purposes for which they were collected, but they are required by you for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims
- you have objected to the processing of your personal data pursuant to paragraph 6) below, pending the verification whether our legitimate grounds override those of yours

Where processing has been restricted, such personal data shall, with the exception of storage, only be processed with your consent or for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims, for the protection of the rights of another natural or legal person, or for reasons of important public interest of the EU or of a Member State.

6) Right to object to processing

Where personal data is processed based on legitimate interest or public interest, you have the right to object at any time to the processing of your personal data, on grounds relating to your particular situation.

7) Right to data portability

Where personal data is processed based on your consent or in order to perform a contract, you have the right to receive the personal data in our possession or control in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format, and have the right to transmit that data to another data controller without hindrance from us. You also have the right to have your personal data transmitted directly from us to another data controller where technically feasible.

8) Right to withdraw your consent

You have the right to withdraw any consent to data processing you have given at any time. Such withdrawal does not affect the lawfulness of processing based on your consent before its withdrawal. The costs incurred by Data Controller due to such withdrawal of consent shall however be borne by you.

You can do this by contacting us at privacy@fiteq.org.

9) Rights related to automated decision making including profiling

The creation and continuous updating of Player Profiles shall be regarded as profiling with a view to facilitating transparency and developing TEQBALL as a sport. Profiles are being updated based on the players' performance at the various competitions, tournaments. Other than establishing an openly accessible registry of records, the creation and maintenance of Player Profiles do not have any adverse effects on Players. Profiling is an essential part of FITEQ membership and the rules related to the sport.

10) Right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority & the right to an effective judicial remedy

Without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy, you have the right to lodge a complaint with a supervisory authority, in particular in the Member State of your habitual residence, place of work or place of the alleged infringement, if you consider that the data processing infringes the GDPR.

The supervisory authority having jurisdiction in the Member State where the Data Controller is established:

Name: National Authority for Data Protection and Freedom of Information
(Nemzeti Adatvédelmi és Információszabadság Hatóság)

Address: Falk Miksa u. 9-11; 1055 Budapest; Hungary

E-mail: ugyfelszolgalat@naih.hu

Without prejudice to any administrative or non-judicial remedy, including submitting a complaint directly to us in accordance with Section V. 'ACCOUNTABILITY', you have the right to an effective judicial remedy before the courts of the Member State where the Data Controller or data processor is established, or, alternatively, where you have your habitual residence.

V. ACCOUNTABILITY

For queries and complaints relating to our processing of your personal data or this Privacy Policy in general, please contact us at the following e-mail address: privacy@fiteq.org

VI. DATA SECURITY

The Data Controller takes appropriate technical and organizational security precautions to protect your personal data against manipulation, loss and destruction, as well as against access by unauthorized third parties, and to ensure the protection of your rights and adherence to the applicable data protection laws and regulations. However, you are kindly reminded that the internet is an open, global network. When you transmit personal data to us via the internet, you are deemed to accept the unavoidable risks associated therewith. Despite the technical and organization security measures implemented by the Data Controller, data can get lost or be intercepted and/or manipulated by unauthorized third parties. We decline all liability relating to such loss, corruption, interception and/or manipulation of your personal data and any consequence thereof, unless we have breached the standards of care required of data controllers based in the EU.
