AN INNOVATIVE WELLNESS SOLUTION

Today's modern world can be chaotic and hectic, so it's no wonder that the majority of the population admits to struggling with overall wellness. Even more concerning is the sheer amount of sub-par "solution-based" products that are flooding the market, many of which are expensive, invasive, and offer little-to-no effect on actually improving wellness. It's time for a radical change.

Introducing: Limbic Arc. The Limbic Arc system is named after the structures in your brain that control things like behavior, motivation, and long-term memory. It's designed to spark the connection between the old brain and the new brain, helping information that's available at the subconscious level be more accessible at a conscious level. Simply put, Limbic Arc utilizes a web app designed to target your energy field with "InfoBoosts" that are customized based on your selections. It is a one-of-a-kind technology that can lead to life-changing effects for our many subscribers. A collection of wellness products accessible with a click of a button—what could be better than that?

WHAT IS LIMBIC ARC?

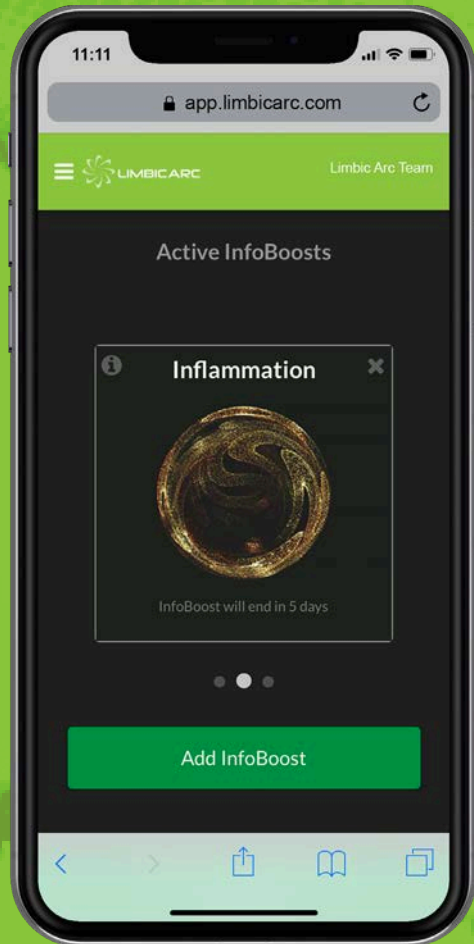

The Limbic Arc system consists of a library of quantum-energy wellness “Boost Ingredients” that are stored on the cloud and then selected and managed with any online device including a computer, tablet, or phone. InfoBoosts™ contain information we’ve linked with specific products like vitamins, herbs, minerals, and essential oils.

HOW IT WORKS

The information in the cloud is accessed through the web app. This information is organized into “InfoBoosts” that are designed to then be focused directly to your energy field. InfoBoosts are possible through a quantum process that happens between the online library and your energy field.

WHAT’S AN INFOBOOST?

InfoBoosts are the output of quantum energy that you set up within the Limbic Arc web app. Each InfoBoost is based on specific Boost Ingredients and can be selected manually or by using our proprietary “Spark Scan” that uses your body’s feedback to provide the desired results.

NEW TECHNOLOGY

Our unique, quantum-energy technology is managed through a simple online interface. You’ll never have to carry a product inventory since all the Boost Ingredients are in the cloud and are accessible on most online devices. When using the Limbic Arc web app, you have access to more than 300 unique, quantum-energy wellness products. We’re constantly adding new products, so you have millions of options. With a Limbic Arc monthly subscription, you’ll have unlimited access to all the features available with Dr. Cook’s quantum-energy pre-built InfoBoost library.
