JANUARY 2022

Edition 29

21 January 2022

The 2021 Teqball World Championships were a “green tick” in the words of FITEQ Chairman Viktor Huszár. In an in-depth interview, the Co-Founder of the sport reflects on the unforgettable event and looks ahead to an exciting 2022. Legendary French footballer Robert Pires was in attendance at the World Championships and took part in a much-anticipated exhibition game. Meanwhile, teqball participated as a demonstration sport at Cali 2021 Junior Pan American Games, and was added as a medal sport at Bolivarian Games Ayacucho 2024. In another busy month, FITEQ delegations also attended the OCA General Assembly and the ANOCA Seminar for Secretaries General.
