APRIL 2021

Edition 20

16 April 2021

A month of major milestones was headlined by the official launch of para teqball, which further highlights FITEQ's commitment to being a sport for all. FITEQ also published its Sustainable Development Handbook, which is a practical guide to help the teqball family be more environmentally and socially conscious. The Teqball Roadshow continued across Africa, with General Secretary Marius Vizer Jr leading FITEQ's efforts to accelerate National Federation development. Competitions were held in four continents, including Asia's first National Challenger Series event, held in India. In more sombre news, FITEQ mourned the loss of György Gattyán Sr, the first ever Hungarian Teqball Federation President and a major contributor to the sport's growth in recent years.
