DECEMBER 2021

Edition 28

20 December 2021

Last month saw preparations for the 2021 Teqball World Championships in Gliwice, Poland (8-11 December) finalised, with the latest World Ranking update confirming Romania's Apor Gyorgydeak would be the men's singles top seed. Meanwhile, it was a busy month for the FITEQ leadership, as President Gábor Borsányi met with senior Russian sports leaders, Chairman Viktor Huszár and General Secretary Marius Vizer Jr travelled to Algeria to discuss the growth of teqball and para teqball in Africa, and Vizer Jr was elected onto the AIMS Council. Competitions continued around the world, with Brunei and Kazakhstan hosting their first-ever events.
