NOVEMBER 2021

Edition 27

24 November 2021

It was a historic month for the teqball family, with Budapest hosting the first-ever combined Teqball and Para Teqball Cup plus the Teq LITE table was recognised with the prestigious Hungarian Design Award. As the competition circuit continued, Romania's Apor Gyorgydeak rose to the top of the FITEQ singles World Ranking, overtaking Hungarian rival Adam Blazsovcics. Meanwhile, FITEQ attended the ANOC General Assembly in Crete, engaging with National Olympic Committees from around the world and lastly Jordan-based teqball coach Ibrahim Al-Hariri shared his insights on how he is helping provide young refugees with the opportunity to regularly practice sport.
