About Seven Corners Expat & Nomad Health Insurance

Seven Corners is helping U.S. residents living, working, and retiring internationally get the worldwide health insurance they need to fully embrace life abroad. We provide this reliable medical coverage in partnership with Freedom Health Insurance. That’s two global experts protecting your wellness and peace of mind.

Who is eligible for Expat & Nomad Health Insurance?

U.S. citizens planning to live, work, or retire abroad for more than a year are eligible for this plan. You must be at least 18 and no older than 74 when the plan starts. Dependent children up to age 20 can also be covered. With this plan, your coverage is worldwide except for the United States and a short list of specific countries.

What does Expat & Nomad Health Insurance cover?

This international private medical insurance plan offers five levels of coverage designed to meet your needs and budget. All levels include inpatient and day-patient treatment, cancer coverage, repatriation, and compassionate emergency visit, in addition to the benefits below.
